

Mischa Danielle Fill

graduated homeschool with honors. She has danced for almost 15 years, mainly in ballet. This is her third year at ATTD, and she served as a class peer during the 2021-2022 season.

This is her first year as an ATTD Junior Company member. She will be attending the University of Akron majoring in dance and working toward her certificate in manual communication (ASL.) She plans on dancing after graduation, as it is her major!

"I am so grateful to have had the opportunity to use my dancing for outreach purposes, such as at the main street festival, tree lighting, and nursing home outreach

I want to thank my family for being so supportive during my dance journey and would especially like to thank my teachers who have helped me get to where I am today, as I couldn't have done any of it without them. I would also like to share an important lesson that I have learned this past year: even though it may feel otherwise, you are never late or behind, but exactly where God wants you to be, because as it says in Ecclesiastes 3:11, "He has made everything beautiful in its time."

graduated with honors from Hoover High School. She has danced for 14 years at ATTD including all different styles, peer teaching, and 3 years as an ATTD Junior Company member. She will be attending Malone University this fall studying psychology. Her goal is to keep dance in her life through theater as long as possible!

“I have been so blessed by ATTD and I will miss you all tremendously. Never forget how loved you all are and how dance changes lives!”

Grace Caroline Neuenschwander graduated from homeschool with honors from various academies and colleges. She has danced for 14 years, and her favorite styles include Irish, Ballet, and Lyrical. She has danced at A Time to Dance Studio for 7 years. In that time, she has been a class peer and teacher for 6 years, a member of Eternity Irish Troupe for 6 years, and an ATD Junior Company member for 4 years. She will be attending Cedarville University and is planning on pursuing the medical field. She will also be participating in Cedarville University's Honor Program and plans on dancing in college, and hopefully, with the studio in the summer.

“One of the most meaningful memories I have had in dance is performing the routine Majesty. This routine was a beautiful reminder to me why I love using the gifts God has given me to bring Him honor and glory. I would like to thank my parents and teachers for supporting and encouraging me throughout my time at the studio. The kindness, selflessness, and wisdom these individuals have shown has truly impacted my life.”

Kelsey Hannah O'Leary

graduated from Hoover High School and has danced for 14 years, 7 of those years with A Time to Dance. She was a class peer for two years and has been a teacher for the past three years as well as a member of ATTD Junior Company for the past 5 seasons. She plans on attending the University of Akron to pursue a BFA in dance in hopes to one day become the creative director of a dance studio or company. Starting this fall, she will become a member of the University of Akron's dance program.

"I am incredibly grateful for the wonderful years I have spent as a part of this studio. A Time to Dance has truly instilled and supported a passion for dance within me that I will carry for the rest of my life. The lessons, friendships, and experiences that I have made through my time at ATTD are irreplaceable. This past year has been extremely rewarding and I am so grateful to have one last chance to share the stage with some of my closest friends. From the bottom of my heart, I thank all my peers, friends, and teachers for making a time to dance my second home. You are all wonderful. I am incredibly lucky to have something so wonderful that it's difficult to say goodbye to. However, it's not truly a goodbye, only a see you later. I look forward to experiencing the beauty of ATTD's dancers from the audience's perspective and cheering them all on for many years to come!!"

graduated summa cum laude from Hoover High School. She has danced for eight years, all at A Time to Dance. She was a member of the ATTD Junior Company for three years. She has also worked as an instructor and taught several ballet classes over the past three seasons. She will be studying pre-law at the George Washington University and majoring in International Relations with a minor in French. She hopes to continue dancing recreationally through her university offered dance classes and dance program.

“I would like to specifically thank Marley Davis and all staff members at A Time to Dance for providing me with a creative and athletic outlet over the last few years. Even on rainy days, this studio provided me with a space to learn, grow, and thrive. I have learned so much about hard work, dedication, and supporting others throughout my time at this studio. I will carry the lessons I've learned here far into the future.”
